Srinidhi Sridharan

Classical Music Concert

Thursday June 24, 2010 - 5.00 - 6.00 pm

Srinidhi Sridharan has grown up in a family that performs, practices and promotes Carnatic music. Thanks to the guidance of his parents, Srinidhi began learning Carnatic music under Dr. Alakananda Nath.

In 2002, Srinidhi began taking lessons from Smt. Raji Gopalakrishnan. He takes online classes with her throughout the year, and one-on-one classes every summer. Her training has now brought Srinidhi to the concert platform. Srinidhi has given numerous concerts in the Toronto Area. He has won prizes in the Cleveland Music Competition, as well as performed in Chennai during the music season.

In 2007, Srinidhi began learning mridangam under Sri. Thanjavur S. Ganapathy. Srinidhi hopes to pursue both vocal and percussion side by side.

Srinidhi is currently completing a degree Mathematics from the University of Waterloo, and a degree in Business Administration from Wilfred Laurier University.
